I work in Phoenix and listen to KLOVE every day. The music and the messages that they play are not only entertaining but helpful in many ways. They offer hope, joy and peace. There are not many stations in the Phx. area that play contemporay Christian music and I would not want them to be replaced. I believe anyone listening to KLOVE would find not only good music but a positive message for their lives. Please do not replace them.